Number of Children in the 37 Schools on the 29th of September, 178 were 966 Boys, and 554, Girls in all 1520 Children.

There were in the four Provincial Nurſeries at Michaelmas, 178 286 Children, which with thoſe in the Schools, made 1806 Children the Society's Care.

The Children admitted are thoſe born of Popiſh Parents, or ſuch as wo be bred Papiſts, if neglected, and are of ſound health and limbs. Th Age from 6 to 10 Years. They are placed in Schools remote from th former abode, and at the Age of about 14 Years, are apprenticed i Proteſtant Families.

The Society give a Portion of FIVE POUNDS to every Perſon educa in theſe Schools, upon his or her marrying a Proteſtant, with the previ approbation of the Committee of fifteen, and every ſuch Perſon pro uci a proper Certificate that he or ſhe hath duly ſerved out their Apprenti ſhip, provided ſuch Claim is made within ſeven Years, after their Appr ticeſhip, and within Six Months next after ſuch Marriage.

ASSOCIATION FOR PROMOTING THE PRACTICE OF VIRTUE AND RELIGION.

IN the Month of October 1792, a few Gentlemen as well Laity as Clergy, zealous for their Country's welfare, and contemplating with concern the spreading influence of Dissipation, Immorality and Irreligion, associated for the purpose of uniting their humble Endeavours to arrest the baneful Progress of these most serious national Evils, and of exciting by their Example an emulation in others to restore in some measure the Practice of true Religion and Virtue, the only Means of ensuring the temporal Happiness of Mankind; the Pillars on which every Civil Establishment should rest, and on which alone they can depend for perfection and stability.

They meet every Thursday at No. 7, Capel-street, and there attentively consider and discuss such Matters principally as relate to the following important Subjects, viz. The religious Education of the rising Generation by Parents, Schoolmasters and others. The best Means of promoting a regular and conscientious Attendance on public Worship and the Holy Communion, and a due observance of the Lord's Day. How most effectually to recommend and restore the Practice of Family Prayer. How to restrain profane Swearing and Cursing, and to guard against the horrid Crime of Perjury. What may be the best Means of promoting Honesty and Industry, and discouraging Idleness in the lower Classes, and of preventing and discountenancing Intemperance, Dissipation and ruinous Extravagance in the upper Classes of the Community: and in a Word, whatever may contribute to the temporal as well as the eternal welfare of Mankind.

Concerning further Particulars enquiries will be answered at Mr. Wm. Watson's Secretary, No. 7, Capel-street.

The CHARITABLE LOAN.

THE Governors of the Charitable Musical Society incorporated by Act of Parliament in 1788, for lending out Money Interest free, to Indigent Tradesmen, meet at St. Andrew's Vestry-Room, every Wednesday, to lend not less than two Pounds, nor more than Five to any one Person at one time, which Sums are to be paid at Six-pence in the Pound Weekly. Proper Objects of this Charity must apply, by a Certificate printed by Mr. William Watson and Son, No. 7, Capel-street. Since March 1780, 2648 Persons have been relieved whose Families amounted to 12,962, and the Sum lent 10,094 pounds.

Preparing for the Preſs, the THIRD EDITION, of The POST-CHAISE COMPANION, or TRAVELLER'S DIRECTORY, THROUGH IRELAND.

Containing a new and accurate deſcription of the direct and principal croſs Roads, with particulars of the Noblemen and Gentlemen's Seats, Cities, Parks, Natural Curioſities, Antiques, Caſtles, Ruins, Manufactures, Loughs, Glens, Harbours, &c. Forming an hiſtorical and deſcriptive account of the Kingdom. To which is added a DICTIONARY, or ALPHABETICAL TABLES of the diſtance of all the principal Cities, Boroughs, Market and Seaport Towns from each other; ſhewing, by inſpection, the number of miles any City, or principal Town in Ireland, is diſtant from any other, according to the neareſt direct or croſs road. BY W. WILSON.

I. This Work will be neatly printed in one Volume, octavo, corrected and much enlarged, on a new type and ſuperfine demy paper.

II. A Modern Map of the Kingdom, and an entire new ſet of Plates, will be given, engraved in the beſt ſtyle.

III. As the price of the Work cannot at preſent be exactly aſcertained, it is thought proper to remark, that it will not be leſs than EIGHT BRITISH SHILLINGS, nor, at any rate, exceed HALF-A-GUINEA.

IV. Subſcribers will be entitled to the firſt and beſt impreſſions of the plates, in the order ſubſcribed for, which, for them only, will be printed on a fine wove Paper of a ſuperior quality.—One Britiſh Crown to be paid for each Copy on ſubſcribing, and the remainder on the delivery of the Work, ſewed in boards; which is intended for publication ſome time in the courſe of the next year.

V. A Book is now open to receive ſuch Subſcribers Names as intend to honor the Author with their reſpective patronage and protection.

THE encouragement with which the Author has been honored in two former publications of this work, induces him to offer a Third Edition, which he has reaſon to expect will be leſs exceptionable than either of the foregoing, as no opportunity has been omitted to avail himſelf of every poſſible means for that purpoſe; and he feels a juſt pride on this occaſion in acknowledging, that he has already received much uſeful and curious information from ſeveral of his literary acquaintance. He muſt ſtill, however, ſolicit the kind aſſiſtance of the public, particularly theſe noblemen and gentlemen of Ireland, who may wiſh to communicate materials to him relative to new roads, or hints of ſuch objects of natural curioſity, near their reſpective ſeats, as might poſſibly be heretofore omitted. Such favors will always be thankfully acknowledged, as they muſt be conſidered eſſentially conducive to the perfection of the work. —Beſides a careful and accurate reviſal of the Great, Direct, and Croſs Roads, deſcribed in the two former publications of this work, ſeveral new roads, with a variety of additional and deſcriptive information will be given in this edition, purpoſing to ſubmit it to the public as ſtill more deſerving their future countenance and protection. Letters addreſſed for this purpoſe, are requeſted to be forwarded (poſt-free) to N°. 6, Dame-ſtr.

Juſt publiſhed by the Printer hereof, An extenſive and elegant variety of LADY'S and GENTLEMEN'S MEMORANDUM BOOKS for the year 1794, large and ſmall, in various bindings, prices in proportion.

HISTORICAL ANNALS of the City of DUBLIN, brought down to the preſent Year.

A.D.

140 DUBLIN, anciently called Aſchled, according to Ptolemy, built.

155 Took its preſent name from Alpinus, whoſe daughter, Auliana, being drowned in the Liffey, he changed the name of Aſchled to Auliana, (by Ptolemy called Eblana, afterwards corrupted into Dublana) that ſhe might be had in remembrance.

448 Alphin Mc. Eachard, K. of Dublin, and his ſubjects, converted, by St. Patrick to the Chriſtian faith.

491 St. Patrick, the firſt Iriſh biſhop, died, aged 122 years.

498 Oſtmen or Danes, entered the Liffey, with a fleet of 60 ſail; poſſeſſed themſelves of Dublin, Fingal, &c. and ſoon after enivroned the city with walls. Before the harbour became navigable for ſhips of burthen, their cargoes were landed near Dalkey for ſecurity, and lodged in the ſeven caſtles, until conveyed by land-carriage to the capital.

902 A party of Danes, with a large fleet, overthrown by the citizens.

916 Oſtmen of Dublin invaded the iſland of Angleſea; and waſted it, with fire and ſword.

948 St. Mary's-abbey built, by the Danes, for Benedictine Monks.

956 Battle between the Danes and people of Leinſter, in which the latter were defeated.

1014 Famous battle of Clontarf, near Dublin, between the Danes and the natives, wherein the former were vanquiſhed.

1038 Chriſt-church, Dublin, built, by Sitricus, king of the Oſtmen. St. Michael's-chapel built, by Donat. Afterwards converted into a parochial church, by archbiſhop Talbot.

1084 Dublin erected into a biſhopric.

1105 St. Catherine's-church built.

1146 Firſt nunnery erected, and entitled St. Mary of Hogges; a village without the weſtern-gate.
